COMMENTATOR.:- Hallo everybody ! This is the Universal Talking News reporter screen-casting the latest news.

(1).

TITLE.:- HIGHLAND GAMES.

Picture.:- Sir Harry Lauder thinks it best to keep on the right side of these hefty Scots -- he's very VERY sensible.

A boy scout finds the hammer rather heavy --

But see what these fine Scottish athletes can do with it !

A splendid picture of energetic action -- round and round -- and zoom, that went over a hundred feet !

Wrestling in the Cumberland style -- a strenuous struggle. A firmer grip and UP he comes -- and round once more -- and bang ! I'll wager that hurt.

Tossing the Caber -- it's not so easy as it looks --

--but Anderson, a Dundee policeman, puts over a good one -- and wins the championship.

Dainty damsels delight with a snappy rendering of the Highland Fling.

And finally, a thousand pipers march past -- I'm not going to attempt to describe the sound, sufficient for you to imagine it.
