TITLE.:- BORDER PAGEANT.

Picture.: Minto House is the mecca for thousands of Borderers on this occasion; and they give His Royal Highness, Prince George, a warm welcome when he arrives to grace with his presence a performance of an elaborate pageant in aid of the Girl Guides of Scotland.

Here is seen the attack on Roxburgh Castle by he who was called "Black Douglas" by his foes.

--and here gypsies dance in honour of a visit from Mary Queen of Scots.

This represents a black page in Border History. At Carlanrigg, by order of James the Fifth, Johnie Armstrong, a gallant freebooter of his day, and his supporters, while offering their services to the King, are seized and marched away to their doom.
