(5). TITLE.:- ANCIENT JAPANESE FESTIVAL.

Picture.:- The Land of the Rising Sun is famous for its many picturesque ceremonies and festivals -- and this one is no exception. Big "floats" representing Nippon in olden times are paraded through the streets. Some are beautifully decorated and cost quite a lot of money to construct.

A cheerful, colourful show worthy of Japan.

(6). TITLE.:- NORMANDY HORSE FAIR.

Picture.:- Buyers come to this famous fair from England, Germany and many other countries, and thousands of horses change hands. Every known kind of horse appears at this big fair.

Buyers and sellers argue long over the deals --
--and strike their bargains in this expressive way.

Field kitchens are necessary as the fair is held miles from town.

They do themselves jolly well too. Even hot roast meat straight from the spit is obtainable.

They're well bread -- even if some of the horses are not!

Normandy pottery also finds a ready sale at the fair, most of it being very good indeed.

Business is reported as well above average this year.
