TITLE.:- FAST YOUNG THINGS.

Picture.:- Half a dozen of them show their pace -- and a jolly good pace too -- in the hundred yards. Come on, girls! Number two, on the left does it!

Twelve seconds for a hundred yards is pretty good time.

The long jump -- Oop! -- Over! -- a roll in the sand's her lot!

Here's another! -- Up! -- A clean jump this time.

Number one now! Ah! a beauty!

Seventeen feet five inches -- a VERY, VERY fine effort.

A miss gets a rise -- a jolly good one, too.

That bar's high -- yes, too high, for her.

A lefty lass next. Well jumped, miss!

She did four feet eight.

Away they go on the half mile.

Miss Humphreys takes it easy at third place here --

--but soon shakes out her permanent wave and shows a clean pair of heels to the others --

--winning comfortably by half a dozen yards.

Now I suppose it's a visit to the hairdressers for her.

TITLE.:- SPLENDID SPORTSMAN.

Picture.:- New York gave this fine old English gentleman a rousing send off -- for he endeared himself to all by his sportsmanlike acceptance of defeat--

--in his great effort to win for Britain the America's Cup. They're going to present him with another cup as a token of his sportsmanship.

You may be sure it will be highly prized, for it is a very great compliment. They hated to see him go, and as many as possible shook him by the hand as Sir Thomas set out for home. Better luck next time, Sir.
