(5). TITLE.:- MACHINE GUN SERVICE.

Picture.:- The girls want to be fast -- at the nets, --
--so Mr. Kinsley loads up his machine gun and,
--fires balls at them at the rate of thirty five a minute.
As they --
Zip, zip, zip, zip --
--the girls keep on the jump, trying not to let them pass.
It's a clever idea, and gives the --
--girls a lot of fun while improving their speed.

(6). TITLE.:- CANADA MOURNS.

Picture. :- Canada's horror at the awful disaster, which befel the R.101 finds expression in the memorial service for the victims, held at the Cenotaph in Montreal. It is attended by thousands --
--including the Mayor of the City and Sir Arthur Currie.
The Royal Canadian Air Force pay homage from the air--
--while the nation gives vent to its grief at the Motherland's loss.
Sir Arthur Currie, principal of the McGill University, was formerly Officer Commanding the Canadian Expeditionary Force. His wreath bears the simple inscription "To those who died in the Empire's service".
At the conclusion of the service Sir Arthur takes the salute from the participating troops. We thank you, Canada, for your splendid sympathy.
