TITLE.:- ITALY'S STRONG MAN

Picture.:- It's the fifth anniversary of the inauguration of the Municipal Guards of Rome.

Signor Mussolini -- Italy's very "strong man"--celebrates the birthday by reviewing the force --

--and presenting decorations to its more deserving members. What a wonderful personality Mussolini has ! No other country in the world has ever produced so powerful a character.

The Guards -- who are a kind of military police allied to the Fascisti -- pass in review before --

--Mussolini, who acknowledges their salute in the expressive manner we have learned to expect from him.

A great day for the Municipal Guards, and one which won't easily be forgotten.
