(10). TITLE .: - PRINCE OF MALES.

Picture .: - Higher education for the rural areas is the object of the new village college.

J 2525 C

The Frince shows his great sympathy with the movement by consenting to open the centre, which is the first of many to be completed.

--- B----

Thousands of school children line up to give His Royal Highness as hearty a greeting as he has ever received.

The Prince was obviously pleased with the appearance of the little guard of honour of girl guides from the surrounding countryside.

An everlasting memorial to such an auspicious occasion must, of course, be established. So His Royal Highness consents to plant a lime tree to commemorate his visit.

He showels the soil in in true workman-like style. Let's hope he proves to be a good amateur gardem r --

--and that the tree will flourish as well as the college 1

The new college is an experiment in advanced education with ---

--a strong rural bias. As everyone knows, the Frince is always interested in anything which has a flavour of adventure about it.
