(2). TITLE.:- TYROLESE FESTIVAL.

Picture.:- Although now under the Italian flag these people of the --

--South Tyrol cannot forget their German origin. This procession--

--is in the nature of a memorial to their lost nationality.

That, of course, is their affair, Nevertheless, they make an --

--attractive picture as they march through the streets of Meran,--

--the famous health resort, which is visited, every year --

--by ten thousand invalids from all parts, in search of health.

The size of the procession is clear proof of what they--
--think about their national affairs. At any rate they take interest--

--in them. For this alone they should be applauded.

A striking demonstration by a picturesque people.

(3). TITLE.:-LIGHT FOURS AT CAMBRIDGE.

Picture.:- Rowing interest at this time is centred on the Coxwainless Fours. They start a hundred yards apart, with two corresponding winning posts.

Some very remarkable timing takes place. See this !
In-out, in-out, in-out, in-out etc. That's good work !

They keep direction very well indeed, considering they have no cox and are steering blind.

Here come Third Trinity leading Lady Margaret. They put up a splendid fight and deserve their win.
