TITLE.:- PRINCE TAKAMATSU.

Picture.:- Madrid greets its illustrious visitors with all the pomp and brilliance one expects on such occasions in Sunny Spain. They love to "spread themselves" in this way, and so, Prince Takamatsu and his Princess,--

--here they are, get a cordial welcome. His Imperial Highness reviews the royal regiment. You will remember that he and his bride came to England earlier in the year and stayed as guests of His Majesty at Buckingham Palace. The Prince brought, as a gift from his brother, the Emperor of Japan, to our King, the Order of the Rising Sun of Japan as a token of regard.

With the Infante Don Alfonso of Orleans, the Prince returns to the Palace, while the Infanta Dona Beatrix accompanies the dainty little Princess.

The return to the Royal Palace is one befitting the occasion. Double military escorts make a brave show as they precede --

--the royal carriages. Prince Takamatsu will surely carry away with him pleasant memories of his visit to the capital city of Spain; --

--which certainly knows how to give an impressive reception to distinguished visitors from other lands.
