

(4). TITLE.:- THE BOYS COME HOME.

Picture. : - The Fourth Hussars have been in India for nine years, so they're really not sorry to be home again.

Last time they returned to England from abroad there were only --

--6 officers and 98 men of them. All that were left after the war had taken its toll.

They have a marvellous record; for past and present members received over two hundred -- decorations of nine different nations, for distinguished service to the common cause of the Allies.

They're all glad to set foot in "dear old Blighty" once more, with the prospect of Christmas at home this year.

Wives and families come too, of course. Some are bigger than others -- er families I mean, not wives ! A number of the youngsters are seeing England for the first time -- having been born in India.

Now they are all off to York, where they will take over the barracks just vacated by the Inniskilling Dragoon Guards. A fine regiment with a wonderful record. We're proud of them and glad to have them back.
