

(6). TITLE:- LAND OF SURPRISES.

Picture:- A delightful surprise too ! Fancy meeting these dainty damsels in the woods! We know where -- --we should have to search for any of our cameramen who might be missing in the future ! "Woodland wandering" is their new pastime !

Hullo ! Adam invades Eden. We forgive him, for Eve comes too ! They all make a pretty picture in this sylvan setting, which is much preferred to the stuffy atmosphere of the theatre for their rehearsals. They get enough of that after the sun goes down. Now girls, fade away! That's it ! They were taking our eyes off the two clever principals -- and that's not fair, of course !

Now see the "Dance of the Hours" as it is called; but the clock is slow ! If they worked as slow as this in the ordinary way, they'd be finishing Saturday night's performance, about Tuesday afternoon ! This is easy -- try it with the wife when you get home !

She might enjoy being thrown about like this -- but, then again, and it's much more likely, she might not !
