(4). TITLE.:- FATHER OF MODERN JAPAN.

Picture.:- Over 20,000 youngsters take part in this display. It is a tribute to one of the more modern rulers of the Land of the Rising Sun. Matsu Hito was responsible for the advancement of his country to a nation of first rank.

They call this "singing drill" which explains itself. The youngsters "mark time" as they belaud the Father of Modern Japan.

So rapid was the progress of Japan under his rule--

--that the title adopted for his reign was "Enlightened Peace".

The great display includes thousands of schoolgirls, as well as boys. One must admire--

--them for the rather wonderful tribute they pay to one who did so much for their country.
