TITLE.:- AMERICA REMEMBERS.

Picture.:- The American nation remembers all those brave men who gave their lives in the common cause of freedom. The ceremony is quite a simple one, as the President, in the name of the people, lays a floral tribute on the tomb. Though simple, the act is no less sincere, than the more spectacular displays seen in the capitals of the other allies, including London. Every year homage is paid --

--to their memory, by the highest in the land, and the lowliest.
