

(5). TITLE.:- CHRISTMAS IS COMING.

Picture.:- If turkeys can wonder, they must be wondering what all the fuss is about, and why they are getting such big meals just now. They're not a bit "fed-up" --

--at being fed-up, but, oh, if they knew the reason ! There's a hot time coming to them, and they won't know anything about it ! This --

--fine fellow steps to the front to show how lovely he is. Somebody will soon be saying, with a smack of the lips, how lovely he was !

Farmers are very busy getting them ready for The Day.

Here's another little lot of Christmas Dinners, which are being carefully shepherded along in case any of them should go astray.

Somebody's table will creak under the strain of this splendid thirty-pounder. He looks as though --

--he's trying to tell us all about it. We'll know all about it when he is on a big dish, --

--all nice and brown, decorated with a string of sausages.
