TITLE.:- PARIS GETS A SOAKING.

Picture.:- The waters of the Seine have become a serious menace to the City of Paris. Even the -- --statues of the French soldiers decorating the Alma bridge are up to the knees in water.

If you took a stroll in the riverside gardens, you'd need a bathing costume !

Strenuous efforts are being made to keep the water from flooding the streets,--

--and specially installed pumps are hard at it relieving the drains, to let the floods away.

Water leaking through into the underground railway tunnels is causing much alarm.
