

C-284551

(4). TITLE:- WORLD'S FASTEST GAME.

Picture:- Only the most agile dare take part in this game, for, on, fleetness --

--of foot depends success or failure in ice-hockey.

The Berliners are "all over" the Viennese right from the start of the game, --

--and they show great form in some of their spirited dashes.

After half time, with score "One-0" in Berlin's favour,--

--Vienna "Bucks up to it", leading the Germans a merry dance. But the Berlin team realizes its danger, and fights back - hard !

Here's one of the high-spets of the game. Just as the Berliners seem to have it, an Austrian dashes in and gives the home-team a shock. That's the stuff to give 'em. Oh, hard luck, sir ! Berlin's got it again ! and looks like keeping it !

With only a few minutes to go Berlin scores again, and oh ! a player goes in too !