(1). TITLE.:- FATHER OF THE MOVIES.

Picture.:- Miss Le Prince, daughter of the man to whom all cinema lovers owe so much, shows us a piece of the first film made by her father. This was over forty years ago !

The Lord Mayor of Leeds unveils the memorial tablet, --

--which is affixed to the wall of --

--the premises where Le Prince made --

--the first camera which initiated the art of the film as we know it to-day. It's a far cry --

--to the day when Miss Le Prince saw figures moving on a white-washed wall of her father's workshop. It's quite likely that,--

--but for Louis Le Prince, you wouldn't be seated in a cinema as you are now !
