(5). TITLE.:- LAST RACE.

Picture.:- Maryland has 117 days of racing in the season. On the last --

--day the last race is the Endurance Handicap. Twenty-five -- --thousand people get ready for the final thrill.

There they go ! They're nearly at the post now ! Excitement runs high !

They're off ! Thousands of voices take up the cry ! Claremont jumps to the lead, and holds it ! That's the stuff ! The field strings out but there's no challenge to the leader ! Away they go, round the bend; Claremont draws further ahead ! The big ---

--crowd thrills with excitement, but --

--"Claremont" loses place to "Happy Scot" ! He's on the rails, but "Sweep All" is creeping up ! Come on, boy ! You'll do it, yet ! Up he comes ! On ! on ! Good lad ! He's done it ! They're neck and neck ! Stick it "Sweep All" ! He's going ahead ! Great stuff ! "Sweep All's leading ! Keep it up, boy ! You're - he's done it ! Well done, Sweep All !
