

C-824521

(6). TITLE.:- THEY'RE ALL THE SAME.

Picture.:- They're not a bit shy about telling Father Christmas what --

X

--they would like to find in their stockings on Christmas morning !

Each one of them would give their hearts for this fine railway. Though seven to ten is a little --

--young to start life as a railway magnate ! At seventy, they might stand --

--a chance! This train goes to toyland !

And here we are ! with "Joey", showing off a dainty dancing damsel. It rather looks as though he's giving the young idea a bend in the wrong direction.

X

This is safer ! The dancing, or the dancer, may not be so attractive, but still, it's rather amusing.

Hullo ! Who said "war" ? He's up-and down, before you can say knife ! He's up again ! Ow !

This is good ! Over ! Over ! Over ! Over ! Over ! Splendid !

You might have had this happen in your back-garden. Next door's "Moggie" invades it- the dog spots the invader - and your geraniums "go west" in the "argument" that follows !