

2 P 24751

(7). TITLE.:- FOR MIDLAND TERRIERS.

Picture.:- The Director General of the Territorial Army comes to "Brum" to inaugurate the new Drill Hall at Carter's--

--Green, West Bromwich. He's much interested in many who were originally "Terriers" and now are British Legionaries.

The Drill Hall is at Headquarters of the 46th Divisional Train. Royal Army--

--Service Corps. The General is a man of few words. He-- --wastes no time in getting down to --

--the real job in hand - that of opening the new drill hall.

With the turn of a key, the useful building is opened,--

--and all present, Terriers of to-day and yesterday, express their pleasure with three of the best !