TITLE.:- CITY OF LIGHTS.

Picture.:- Paris believes in making light of things at this time of the year. We learn a bright --

--way of "shooting the moon", --

--a process which usually takes place at night - so I'm told !

Joujou-ville - that's French for Toytown - is a striking and glowing picture of thousands of lights, --

--while this is called a celestial catapult. Toys are dropped into the basket - the flag wags - and, WHOOP ! away go the toys !

X Outside the Hotel de Ville we are treated to a sparkling show by the Brilliant's' Band ! They play fast in the hopes of putting a hustle in to the shoppers!
