

2-284521

(4). TITLE.:- RACE TO NOWHERE.

Picture.:- They're going to race for six days on the track ! Imagine that, a whole--

--week of this sort of thing ! Plodding round and round with only necessary breaks for sleep and food. It's a wonder --

--they don't get giddy and fall off ! They're racing to nowhere, and are determined to get there in a week !

Round and round they go ! It must be fearfully monotonous for them, with nothing to see but the track ! Sometimes there are spills, with damage to men, --

--and machines, but the race goes on ! Nothing can stop it but the clock ! And that only after it has ticked out --

--144 hours ! There are many ways of spending a giddy week, but this --

--seems about the giddiest ! We can't keep you here for a week, so we'll leave them !