(8). TITLE.:- DID YOU CHOOSE FURS ?

Picture.:- Most people prefer them behind iron bars, or dressed up as --

--furs for milady's wear. This chap looks passive enough, but you can never trust them.

They are very valuable specimens, whose fur overcoats will soon be transferred, secondhand, as it were --

--to provide warmth for some chilly mortal, who is able to afford them.

You can understand why a crafty individual is called a "sly fox", --

--when you look in this fellow's eyes. You couldn't --

--be blamed for preferring 'em minus life ! Even this lady, who knows all there is to know about foxes looks rather scared. No wonder !
