(9). TITLE.:- CHAMPIONS ALL.

Picture.:- While we are shivering in winter's icy blasts, California is still enjoying its usual sunny days. Thus it is that --

--America's best divers can give a display of their abilities at this time of the year.

There they go ! Four of them - all champions of a particular style.

The three men go off ! Plonk ! Cutting three clean holes in the water, and little splashing !

Now a solo dive ! Cop ! Over ! "The poetry of motion !" A beautiful dive ! The girl champion, --

--Miss Georgia Coleman, now makes a splash, but as small a one as possible ! That's real diving !

Many people enter the water feet first ! But most of them usually tip-toe in !

Here's another ! Cop ! Over ! A half twist ! And practically no splash ! That's the way to do it ! Then, as a grand finale to a -- --very effective display they follow-the-leader into the pool's sparkling depths !
