

135200-C

(2). TITLE.:- FOR GOOD BEHAVIOUR.

Picture.:- They've been good for a year ! So the President gives them a party.

Toys aplenty, and other good things abound. The youngsters almost think it's worth being good for !

The jovial President, himself, is there. He has a word for each of his tiny guests, as he passes round the long --

--tables laden with much to give the youngsters joy -(or indigestion !) M. Doumergue is anxious that his guests shall continue their good behaviour in 1931 - they promise him they will. Well --

--the end of this year will tell its own tale ! We shall see ! A year's a long time !