(6). TITLE.:- FEAST FOR HOMELESS.

Picture.:- The Salvation Army in Paris were determined that all of the city's vagrants should not be hungry as the New -- --Year came into being. Over two thousand of them were entertained to what was, in many cases, the first square meal --

--they had had for days. And how they enjoyed it ! Just look at them ! They may not have a single --

--penny in their pockets - but they will, at least, face 1931 well fed. Better days to them all !
