

(6). TITLE:- YORKSHIRE ICE SKATING.

Picture.:- Although most skating championship races had to be abandoned, the Yorkshire contest was held.

Off go a pair of competitors for the title. They make good speed in spite of the heavy going, due to thaw setting in.

There are five contestants - racing in pairs - the one making the fastest time --

✓ --being adjudged the winner* The big crowd enjoyed the unusual thrill, and --

X ✓ --hullo ! this chap appears to be racing himself !* There's no other competitor in the picture! Oh ! there is another ! Come on, you're a long, long way behind !

The deposed champion, the Reverend Peyton-Burbery of Marsh, on the left, congratulates the new champion, Mr.--

X ✓ --E.Richardson of Selby* We congratulate you, too, Sir !
