(B). TITLE.:- TRAINING ON THE SANDS.

✓ Picture.:- Whatever the weather, racehorses must have exercise. Here's how one trainer solves the problem of what to do when the ground is hard with frost. * It's quite a novel sight to see --

✓ --animals who are destined to give us a run for our money - if nothing else - taking a stroll on the sands. * Amongst the beauties you see here are the Lincolnshire candidates "Lion Hearted" and "The Wheedler"; not to mention Merano, Annally, and X ✓ War Mist * . Royal Arch II --

--is amongst the entries for the Grand National. Here they come in a canter.-- I believe "hack-canter" is the correct term.

✓ The horses welcome this as a change from ordinary ✓ routine. * In fact they don't like getting back to training at their proper quarters. * Time and tide wait for no -- horse, --

--so, before the tide comes in Mr. Duller takes care that his precious charges are safely off the Bognor beach.
