(1). TITLE.:- GRACE ON THE ICE.

Picture.:- It's difficult to imagine anything more graceful than two experts - (unless it's three experts) - on the ice ! ... Visitors to Chamonix soon clear off the rink when it becomes known that the Brunet-Joly's are to -- --give an exhibition. ... If there's anything they don't know --

--about ice-skating, well, it's not worth knowing ! ... Here's where husband and wife part, for a time ! ... No premiere danseuse ever gave a better exhibition of elegant grace than these two world skating champions. ... We are glad to be able to show you these -- --two as seen by the slow-motion camera. ... The poetry of motion brought to the screen ! ... Ha ! hubby lets his wife down - but oh !, so gently ! So there's not likely to be any trouble about it ! ...

Thank you, good people ! Now we know how it should be done !
