K

Bolton assume the offensive, and the first half is mainly a series of attacks by them --

--on the Sunderland goal. ... Here's an anxious moment or two for the goalie.

Well away, but Bolton still at it ! ... You'd think the ball belonged to them ! Pretty ! That's play ! Good lad, hold it ! Away with it ! Good man !

So it goes on, pretty well all the way through the first half .

Everybody's happy, for there's no harm done, either way, yet ! And then --

--comes the second half of --

--the game. ... Bolton are as dangerous as ever, and Middleton is kept busy; but Sunderland --

--get into Bolton's half more than once ! Look at Jones, Bolton's goalie, half way up field ! Ha ! ha ! he decides to come home !

Goal ! That's the Wanderers ! Played, sirs ! ...

Just before the end Sunderland equalised - so both lived to --

--fight again !... Cup or no cup, good luck to them !
