

(5).

TITLE.:- UNIVERSITY SKI-JUMPING.

Picture.:- Number One tackles the chute with optimism - and hope - in his heart. ... Up ! ... He disappears, and we wonder - Ah ! he's landed safely, and makes a jelly good run, too! ...

Here's another, heping for the best ! ... Whoop !... Down ! ... Crash ! He used to like skis - now he hates 'em !

Oo ! A good "take-off" - and a safe landing to boot. ... That's a splendid effort ! ... Keep going ! - ah ! spoilt it !

Perhaps this one will do - Ouch ! ... Short and sweet, like a donkey's gallop ! ...

Here comes Edward Blood, of New Hampshire University. ... A fine jump - and a long one ! ... He's down ! No ! he's safe ! ... Very well jumped, Sir ! ... A hundred and fifty feet - and no bones or boards broken ! ...

Even his glasses are still whole ! ... Some mothers have lucky children !