TITLE.:- ARGYLL'S BIRTHDAY.

Picture.:- Many happy returns of the day to the Argylls !

(BRING UP MUSIC AS BAND APPROACHES).

The regiment is 137 years old, and they celebrate by attending Divine Service at St. Giles--

--Cathedral. ... The original colours, and - (by Jove, the wind's blowing !) - and the present colours take part in the celebrations.

Boys of the Victoria School at Dunblane, whose fathers have all served in the regiment, are there too !

(BRING UP MUSIC AS BAND APPROACHES).

Born in 1794, and "still going strong". ... That's a pretty good --

--record for a regiment. ... The old Colours were with the -- --regiment in the Peninsular War. ... They were also on the field of Waterloo. ...

The Argylls have helped to make history - and glorious history at that. ... Here's wishing more power to them !
