

(6). TITLE:- THEIR MAJESTIES

Picture:- It's good to see Their Majesties, once again --

--able to show interest in the world and its doings. ...
The King is particularly interested in the Linen Industry Research --

--Association's exhibition, for His Majesty intends experimenting, at Sandringham, in growing some of the new flax seed which the Association has developed. ...
A hearty welcome is extended to --

--Their Majesties, at the entrance to the Science Museum. ...
A thorough --

--tour of the exhibition follows. ... We are sorry that the light within the building --

--does not enable us to show you clearer pictures in proof--

--of Their Majesties' interest in the Linen Industry ! ...
The King and --

--Queen showed interest in all they saw, and expressed themselves delighted with -- --the fineness of the exhibits. ... By way of a change the weather was quite fine, and --

--Their Majesties appeared to have enjoyed their little trip. ... Everybody was delighted to see them, and the crowd gave them a rousing send-off, as they set out for home.