TITLE.:- LEGION OF LOST.

Picture.:- What a cargo of despair ! ... Hundreds of French convicts, most of them condemned to spend the rest of their -- --lives in that awful penal settlement of Guiana, Devil's Island. ... Many are guilty of terrible crimes - twenty of them --

X --are reprieved murderers - yet one can't help feeling a little sorry for them, knowing that they are being -- --transported to something which has been described as "a living death". ... Here, the first tender-load is being taken -- --out to the Martiniere - the most hated ship in the world - which will take them to exile.

... Three tenders were necessary to carry the "Legion of the Lost " from St. Martin --

--de-Ré out to the "prison ship". ... A government-tug crashes into one of them - an ominous occurrence. ... A small -- crowd is here to bid farewell to the convicts. ... No matter how bad a man may be, there's certain -- --to be someone to shed a tear at such a parting ! ... It's "good-bye" in its most real and sinister sense.
