TITLE.:- SOUTH AFRICA WELCOMES.

Picture.:- In brilliant weather the new Governor-General arrives at Cape Town by the Arundel Castle from England.

... His Excellency reviews the guard of honour drawn up to receive him in his official capacity of representative of the Crown. ... The passengers and crew --

--are much interested in the ceremony. ... It's not every day that one is --

--privileged to see a viceregal welcome. ... After the ride past of mounted troops --

--the Earl, accompanied by the Countess, bids good-bye to the ship's crew, and --

--sets out for the City Hall, --

--there to be welcomed by the South African Government.
