

2540581

(7).

TITLE.:- THIRTY YEARS AGO.

Picture.:- The Royal couple are celebrating the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding.

These are the scenes on that great day in 1901 when Queen Wilhelmina took Prince Henry as Consort. ... Her Majesty met her husband-to-be at the railway station, and drove with him to the Palace prior to the wedding ceremony. ... These pictures are remarkable in-so-far as they are a faithful record of an event which occurred in the very, very, early days of cinema films. ... Not many of us had even --

X
-e seen one, thirty years ago ! Yet now they're speaking for themselves ! ... Here/are the happy Royal Pair on their way to the Church at the Hague in the ancient Golden Coach, which by the way, is still used on State occasions. Everybody wished the young couple "good luck" - and their wishes have come to pass..... There you are, good people, you have really looked back on history!