

2-240751

(1).

TITLE:- WOMENS' HENLEY.

Picture:- Fine weather favours them. ... It's a bit of a change, for up to the present they've had many sorts of weather for their river meetings, --

--and it's all been bad ! ... It's boat-race day, but not a case of light --

--and dark blues ! For every colour of the rainbow appears in one form or another, --

--on the bosom of Father Thames, to-day. ... They are sturdy-looking lasses, capable of giving a good account of themselves !

~~Ready ?~~ Go ! ... And 'go' they do, at a jolly good pace, too. ... There's splendid work for you !

Cheered on by their bright and happy supporters ashore, the rival crews --

--put up a battle which would bring credit to male crews. ... Come on, girls !

That's the stuff to give 'em ! ... Their timing is very good - and no "crabs" caught ! ... The -- --far crew manage to keep their slight gain. ... The house is the winning post. ... And that's that ! A VERY, --

--VERY, good race ! ... A splendid day for all concerned !