(4). TITLE.:- THE LIGHT BLUES.

Picture.:- The carsmen look like giants compared with Harkin the smallest cox in recent years. Oh ! don't turn away !

... He's only 6 stone 13, but hopes to steer Cambridge to victory.

Here's Brooklebank, the Stroke. ... He is an old blue, and president of the Cambridge University Club.

Sergel is a new blue. ... He'll be at No.7 in the big race, --

--while Gray of Jesus College - another new blue - will row in No.6. place.

... Carpmael, one of the heavyweights of the crew - he weighs over 13 stone - comes next, - with --

--Rickett of Third Trinity, at No. 4. ... He's another of the old blues.

No. 3. will be Fletcher, also a Third Trinity man. ... He's just been awarded his blue.

This is Prideaux, (an old blue), who will be rowing at No. 2. ...

Then to "back them all up", is Symonds of Lady Margaret, at bow. ... They are --

--going "all out" to win when the great day arrives. But even if they don't, they're certain of "a place" !
