

(1). TITLE.:- RAIL-SAILING.

Picture.:- Although he's retired from the sea these many years, Mr. Slater is still a sailor !

... He's captain and crew of his little craft, except of -- --course, when his missus is aboard. ... Here's how they go --

--to market. ... Often, the going is slow - but it saves boot-leather !

Being a caretaker of deserted cement workings has its compensations.

What with the delights of dry-land sailing, and --

--LOOK what's here ! A BULL-FIGHT ! Why go to Spain ? ... There's pain (H'm) enough here, in Kent, for the moment !... Thank goodness they've finished !

Having left the missus at the market-town, Mr. Slater gets on with his caretaking job. ...The wind doesn't help him very much to-day. ... Anyway, it's better to be careful than "fast" - sometimes !
