TITLE.:- 21 -TO+DAY.

Picture.:- It's the twins' twenty-first birthday - They're old enough to have a latch-key now !

Lord Cowdray must be proud to be the father of two such popular young people. ...

The Meet of the Cowdray hounds is by way of celebrating the double event.

The Honourable John and his sister Angela are recipients of hearty congratulations from everybody, and if they have --

--all the "good health" that is wished them, they'll never know a day's sickness.

... Away they go with the twins and their father following the hounds, in anticipation of a good day's sport.

There can't be a better or more appropriate wish for the young --

--couple to-day than the old, old, one for sports-people - Good hunting !
