TITLE.:- DOG SLED DERBY.

Picture.:- They have to do a thirty-miles course, three days in succession. ... There are cash prizes --

--of over three-hundred-pounds at stake, so it's worth having --

--a "crack" at ! ... The course takes --

--them out over snow covered roads, where the huskies make pretty --

--good speed , - despite the hard going. They're "tough" boy's all ! ... They should have snow-shoes ! ... They appear to revel --

--in the chase after that three-hundred of the best. ... It means --

--a good three-days work for their master if they bring it off !

A thaw sets in before Number one comes in at Laconia. ... Thirty miles in 2 hours, 13 minutes, 58 seconds - Splendid work under these conditions ! Well done, sir !

The Cup's yours as well as the money.
