TITLE.:- ICE HOCKEY.

Picture.:- It's the first women's international match in this country. ... The French girls --

--start right in on a terrific offensive against the English goal, where Miss Winifred Brown, the airwoman, fills the role of goal-keeper. ... There are no disarming smiles flying around, it is a serious affair --

--for them all. ... Here's England fighting back, but the visitors "stop their gallop" ! Great stuff ! Keep it, missie ! Gush ! you can keep that, tee !

The French girls out-point the English girls, making rings round them. ... Good work, mademoiselle ! but hard luck ! ... Miss Brown's kneeling, perhaps she's praying for no more like that !

... The French team takes the match, four-nil - bruises don't count !!
