

135282-5

(6). TITLE.:- FIRE.

Picture.:- It was right in the danger zone. ... Hundreds of firemen were rushed to the scene of one of the worst riverside blazes in -- --recent years. ... It is estimated that ten-million gallons of water were poured on the fire. ... Quite a lot -- --of it formed picturesque icicles on the outside of the burning building.

The battle with the flames continued day and night for over forty-eight hours.

Firemen took all kinds of risks in trying to overcome --

--the menace to one of the most valuable areas in the world.

... By dint of their wonderful work and splendid devotion to duty, the fire-monster eventually was overcome - and danger past.