

(5). TITLE:- BOXING.

Picture:- The fight's on ! ... There's not much doing in the first round. ... Brown, the coloured champion, adopts the role of spectator, except that now and again he jazes around the ring, with Farrell making ineffectual lunges.

Brown puts in some clever foot-work. ... One might almost say he is fighting this match with his feet. ... He's trying to tire Farrell - that's pretty obvious. ... Come on, boys !& Get to it !

... The audience are very, very, patient. ...

Things buck up a bit in the third round. ... Farrell is entirely on the defensive. ... Ouch ! ... One-two-three-four-five-six-seven-eight-nine - UP ! ... OO ! AND DOWN again! The referee has to go right through the count once more ! ... TEN ! He's out ! ... Al Brown, the victor, feels sorry for the vanquished - he knows how hard he hit him !
