TITLE.:- BEST SELLER.

Picture.:- Ryland's Library, in Manchester, contains the world's best seller in over three-hundred languages. ... That beats --

--Edgar M. Bell or Ethel Wallace into a socked hat ! ...
The --

--bible is unquestionably the world's best seller ! ... This is one of the first editions - in Hebrew, --

--while here is the earliest Greek edition - fourth century. Manuscript, as you see. ...

The fifth century saw the writing of this copy in Syriac. ...

Nearly a thousand years later the bible was printed for the first time - in Latin, --

--and in fifteen-twenty-five, the New Testament in English, came from --

--the press, followed ten years later by the complete bible....

X

Altogether the bible is being printed and published in a hundred languages. ... There's one language I can't trace in the list - but --

--a pile of dollar bills as high as the Statue of Liberty wnn't drag the -- --name of the missing language from me. ... There's no prize for a correct guess !
