TITLE.:- BRITISH AIRCRAFT.

Picture.:- Captain Phocas, the Greek Naval Attache, accepts the machines on behalf of his government. ... They are the first six --

--of the largest aircraft order ever placed in this country by a foreign Power. ... They are all-metal general-purpose planes, similar to --

--those already in use in our own Air Force. ... Here is one off for a demonstration 'flip' over Southampton Water. ... Away in -- --the distance she takes the air with perfect grace. ... A --

--glance at her from another one of her kind, gives us a feeling of pride in her splendid lines. ... One of her objects --

--is bombing. ... She could give those ships down there an uncomfortable five minutes ! ... It's a --

--high compliment to Britain that Greece should come to --

--us for her aircraft. ... It shows that "Made in Britain" means something in the world markets, despite the pessimists. ...

Here they are! ... Six beautiful "ironclads of the air". ... They won't let us - or their owners - down !
