

155505-C

(6). TITLE.:- SHOOTING THE CHUTE.

Picture.:- There's practically no risk in tobogganing down the famous slide at Quebec. ...

Four can go down abreast, with no fear of collision. ... The separate tracks make this the safest chute of its kind in the world. ... You can get the thrill of your life --

--without the risk of waking up in a white-painted ward, with your relatives wondering what's in your will ! ... The slide --

--is down the side of Mount Royal mountain. ... It's half a mile long. ... Whoop ! ... Of course, --

--there are many who prefer a little more energetic kind of sport. ... At the week-end the mountain-side is dotted with -- --figures all making the most of the winter conditions which still prevail. Some collect mosses and lichens, others bruises! ...

The youngsters get quite expert at ski-ing and Keep it up till the sun sets a good example !