TITLE:- CROSS COUNTRY.

Picture:- They're off ! Three-hundred-and-fifty of Britain's best runners - from North, South, East and West - each one intent on --

--being the first to breast a little piece of tape ten miles from the start. ...

There's quite a lot of determination - and hope - in the hearts of all these chaps. ...

There are over ten-thousand people there, encouraging the different runners as they pass. ...

Here's Potts, just ahead of Winfield ! ... He looks fresh enough still ! ... You've done, boy ! ~~Hard-luck~~ ~~Winfield~~ !

Potts is a Newcastle ex-miner. ... He 'picked' the right place at the finish !

... Congratulations. Potts ! ... Ten miles in 57 --

--minutes 16  $\frac{4}{5}$  seconds - Splendid !
that's good going !
