(8). TITLE.:- SOMEWHERE IN SURREY.

Picture. :- They are members of the Sun Bathing Society, but they don't get much -- --chance of basking in the rays of King Sol, nowadays. ... They believe in fresh air, --

--in large slices !... I must say they look healthy enough !
... There's no "city pallor" --

--about them. ... They are kept 'on the move' all the time. ... Chills are practically unknown, amongst these spartan young townspeople. ... This -- --outing on the downs is in the nature of a picnic and the "nip" in the air is their strongest tonic. ...

Look at them - lovely as creatures - without a care in the world

if ~~It's great fun being able to have a game of leap-frog under these conditions - "far from the milling crowd". ... It's often said that health is wealth. ... If that's so, these girls are very, very rich !~~ are worth millions - but get an income tax form means why in their young lives.

Here they come & a dozen of the "great undressed". Any but a Universal cameraman might have scooted in dismay. ...

Congratulations, girls ! You've given Mrs. Grundy the right-a-bout - she's out of date, anyway !
