

(1). TITLE:- DASHING DAMSELS.

Picture :- Well, girls, you're out to do battle for England, home and beauty, --

--but the Belgian belles think just as much of their little homeland, --

--while the French girls have a reputation for being "fairly speedy". ...

Off they go ! ... May the best team win ! ...

They've two miles to - er, get out of the way, there, please ! ... Thanks ! ... The Britishers are making a very good impression.

Miss Lunn and Miss Styles easily outdistance "the field", and keep each other company over a good stretch. ... Keep it up, girls !

Never mind about your permanent waves ! The hairdresser can put them right again, to-morrow !

I'm just wondering if these races are organized by hairdressers ! It must be jolly good for their business ! ... Buck up, girls ! - the others are well ahead !

Here's Miss Lunn leading the victorious British team. ... Good --

--for you, Miss Lunn ! ... I wonder if she runs to work in the morning !
